AMARILLO CLUB HOSTS 1984 TNA CONVENTION

The numismatic spotlight was on the city of Amarillo, Texas when the Amarillo Coin Club hosted the 1984 Texas Numismatic Association convention on May 4, 5, 6 at the Civic Center.

A ribbon of $2 notes was cut by Jerry Ammerman, Amarillo city commissioner, which officially marked the convention opening. Others participating in the ceremony were Curtis Maple, convention chairman; Lloyd C. Colvin, TNA president; Misty Neese, Miss Amarillo; Chuck Steele, Amarillo club president; and Jody Carter, representing KIXZ radio.

Saturday activities began with the annual governors and club representatives breakfast in the Sunburst Room at Quality Inn with Lyman C. Bartee, 1st vice president, conducting the informal meeting in the absence of Gerald Kendall, 2nd vice president. Bartee urged the governors to work with the coin clubs and to attend club meetings and shows whenever possible. Jerry Williams suggested inviting Boy/Girl Scouts to attend club meetings, thereby recruiting potential TNA members.

Miriam Gilmore, chairperson for the Planning Group of TNA's participation in the Texas 1986 Sesquicentennial, outlined the goals and progress made on the various projects planned for the celebration. (Refer to the February 1984 edition of TNA NEWS for details.)

Presentation of awards included the Col. Raymond W. Darrah award to Stephenville Coin Club for the highest percentage of TNA members in a Texas club, and the VIP award which was won by Gerald Kendall for signing up the most new TNA members in 1983.

The Fort Worth Coin Club placed first in the Club Salute contest followed by the Stephenville club, second, and Dallas Coin Club, third. The Austin Coin Club provides these awards and selections are made based on reports of club activities during the calendar year.

Speakers for the Saturday afternoon educational program were Margo Russell of Sidney, Ohio, Coin World editor, who spoke on "The Artistry of Coinage," and Adna G. Wilde Jr. of Colorado Springs, Colo., taking the audience on "A Numismatic Journey Through China." Dave Cervin was program chairman and Lyman C. Bartee, master of ceremonies.

Dave Cervin was showered with awards at the Sunday morning breakfast honoring exhibitors. Cervin captured best in show, placed first in both coins prior to 1500 A.D. and medals, and was winner of the coveted Richard Schweers special award for best in ancient coinage, that award being furnished by Greater Houston Coin Club in memory of one of their esteemed members.

Other exhibit winners were: U.S. coins - Norma Mather, 1st; Homer Dotts, 2nd; George F. Johnson, 3rd. U.S. currency - D.O. Joplin. Foreign coins after 1500 A.D. - Jim Jordan, 1st; Johnson, 2nd; Dennis Hickey, 3rd. Foreign paper money - Dennis Hickey, 1st; Eck Spahich, 2nd. Medals - Jordan, 2nd; D.O. Joplin, 3rd. Specialized - Ralph Ross, 2nd; Nela Runkle, 3rd.

The L.G. Davenport Numismatic Error award went to Nela Runkle, and junior winners were Cory Cluck, 1st; and Adi Cluck, 2nd. Exhibiting in the non-competitive category were Eddie Sessions, Homer Dotts, Dr. Bill Stout, Jim Jordan, Francis Runkle, Adna Wilde Jr., and Dr. Charles Stewart.

Al Loja was head judge assisted by Boyd Pipes, Charles Taylor, Paul Garner, Bernard Loebe and Allan Goldsmith.

Howard Luke, TNA medals officer, was presented the Lewis M. Reagan Memorial award for having contributed the most to Texas numismatics. Lee Grossman was the recipient of the K.K. Tidwell Literary award for the best article published in TNA NEWS during 1983.

Receiving Honorable Mention for submitting articles were Frank Galindo, Glen Littrell, Col. Charles A Wingo, Nela Runkle, Brent Brown, Robert A McCulley, Todd Shewmaker and Tom Underwood.

Inducted into the TNA Hall of Fame joining Miriam Gilmore, Margo Russell, Lyman C. Bartee and Joe B. Davis were Ellis Brooks, Augusta Folda, John Hill and Virgil Hancock. Regretably, the new Hall of Fame members were unable to attend the Amarillo convention.

Convention visitors were treated to a tour of the city with a stop at Hopper's Museum. Early arrivals on Thursday evening were complimented with a buffet supper and on Saturday evening, four of the remaining TNA Charter Members were honored at an informal reception in the Sunburst Room. Charter Members present were Miriam Gilmore, Joe B. Davis, Graves Rouse and Howard Luke.

The youngsters were not forgotten! Nela Runkle entertained them with a swimming party and pizza buffet at Quality Inn's indoor pool and patio. She was assisted by her daughter, Linda, and Katherine Mears.

The TNA governing board met Saturday morning with Lloyd C. Colvin, president, presiding. It was voted to donate $25 as a patron for the American Numismatic Association Mid-Winter convention to be held February 21-24, 1985 in San Antonio. Also, the board awarded the printing contract for TNA NEWS to River Oaks Printing Co. of Ft. Worth for 1984-85; approved an increase in dues for regular members from $8 to $10 beginning January 1, 1985; and approved the following change in the Constitution & By-Laws: ARTICLE I - MEMBERSHIP: Section 5a. (ADDITION TO EXISTING PARAGRAPH ON LIFE MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS) — and approved by the TNA executive governing board and published in the TNA NEWS. If no written objection is received by the TNA secretary during that month of publication, the applicant is admitted as a life member. If written objection is received by the TNA secretary, the objection will be considered at the next regular meeting of the TNA executive board. If any other section of these By-laws contravenes this addition to Section 5a., this addition will prevail.

PLEASE NOTE: The TNA president will call a special meeting to follow the mid-year business session in Austin, Texas, September 30, 1984 for general membership approval on the dues increase and the change in the By-laws.

Convention personnel assisting Chairman Maple were Homer Dotts, bourse; Ted Johannsen and Linda Runkle-Caylor, exhibits; Elisa Thompson, and Pam Tipton, registration; Nela Runkle, entertainment; Mike Eklund and Dan Orick, display cases; Francis Runkle, breakfast arrangements.

And, Paulla White, advertising; June Barker, publicity; Jim Jordan, program brochure; Dave Cervin, educational forums; Jimmy Eddington, electrical; Roy Wilson, security; and Raymond Bates, finance.

The 1985 TNA convention is set for April 19-21 in El Paso. Walt Woelper is convention chairman and for more information write him at Box 3535, El Paso 79223. TNA will be celebrating its 25th anniversary since organization and the 27th convention.

GOLDEN AGE IN AUSTRALIA

Gold has been crucial to Australia's history, said Henry C. Armstrong, Counsellor for Metals, Minerals & Energy of the Canadian High Commission at Canberra, Australia, speaking to the annual meeting of The Gold Institute in Toronto, Canada. Gold changed the image of Australia, it tripled its population, brought civilization to its vast interior, and generated the wealth that built its cities.

It was the discovery of gold in 1851 that opened it all. Knowledge gained from experience in the California gold rush triggered the first gold rush at Ophir, New South Wales. Then discoveries at Melbourne, Victoria outstripped even California. During 1850 to 1860, Australia became the world's largest producer of gold and became the land of opportunity.

During the 1870's, wool and gold were the prime commodities of the land. Then in 1892, gold was discovered at Coolgardie and Kalgoorlie in Western Australia. Those riches were underground in deep mines, and pushed Australia's production to 3.8 million troy ounces in 1903. Production slipped thereafter, and almost ceased with the advent of World War I.

In recent years gold production slowly responded to the higher gold values. By 1982 it reached 859 thousand ounces, and is currently running at a million ounces annually, the highest level in 22 years. In the Kalgoorlie area, 27 new mines are coming on stream, marking a 57% increase in the number of producing mines.

Gold, now second only to oil, is the most actively sought mineral in Australia. Western Australia is producing 76% of Australia's output, with Northern Territory and Tasmania producing 12% and 10% respectively as by-product gold.

A new mine under construction at Kidston, Queensland, is expected to be the country's largest producer, with an annual output approaching 190 thousand ounces of gold. Representing an investment of $153 million, it is scheduled to begin to produce gold in April 1985.

Australia's goldsmiths are using more than 150 thousand troy ounces a year of gold in jewelry sold locally, in the Middle East, and in America.

Australia is also the source of the popular 10 gram gold Koala coinages first issued in 1980 after technical consultations with The Gold Institute.

Australia's gold age is indeed flourishing.

SHREDDED MONEY HAZARDOUS

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco suspended the disposal of shredded currency and food stamps in general-purpose landfill sites because of high concentrations of lead and copper. Tests indicated the lead and copper content exceeded California environmental waste-management standards - so, caution: shredded money may be hazardous to your health.

The bank destroys and disposes of four tons of old currency and food coupons a day. The bank said that it discovered the problem while conducting experiments to determine whether the residue could be compacted into pellets and sold as mulch. Pending further tests by federal and state regulators, the bank said that it would dispose of the shredded currency in hazardous-waste disposal sites.

Bank officials said that the Treasury reduced the content of lead and copper in the ink used in currency two or three years ago. The offending bills apparently pre-date the switch, according to the May 9 Wall Street Journal.

WHERE'S THE MONEY?

The February issue of TNA NEWS gave a run-down of proposed ways we plan to participate in 1986 in the Texas Sesquicentennial celebration. One project is "compiling a directory of Texas money exhibits, WHERE they are located, WHAT they contain and WHEN they may be viewed by the public."

Your assistance is needed! Responses to the editor's request that you let me know if there are any such exhibits in your community have been few. Even if I could go from tip to top and east to west across our state checking banks, libraries and museums I'd miss some you know about, perhaps in stores, churches, schools, restaurants, etc.

And - let's not limit our directory to just MONEY exhibits. Let's include other items in the numismatic field such as medals, tokens, notes, vouchers, bills-of-sale of historic significance, military decorations, political campaign items, etc., etc.

Is your club, or you as an individual planning to place an exhibit where the puhlic can enjoy and learn from it?

Send all information to me at 1300 S. Border #214, Weslaco, Tx 78596 and be assured of my sincere thanks Please don't count on someone else doing it; better we get duplicate information than omit something Norma Mather, Project Chairman.
